44	Application dated 21.9.34 from V.S. Narayana Rao Proprietor of the Indian Press Bangalore for permission to print four or more pages of "Navajeevana" in his Press.

The editor has stated that he is going to increase the bulk of his daily paper to 12 pages and so wants permission to be granted to the applicant to be the additional printer thereof.

Subs for orders with refes.

2) The proposal is somewhat a novel one. The Editor, Navajivana, owns a Press where the paper is now printed. He wants to increase the size of the paper and is apparently unable to print the whole matter in his own Press, & wants it to be printed partly in his Press & partly in the Indian Press. So the Printer of every issue of the paper will be two persons and it must be indicated in each issue where particular pages of it are printed. (The Indian Press has already been permitted to print some journals)

Dear Sir,

In continuation of the talk which we had yesterday, we beg to bring the following to your kind consideration, as directed by you, in connection with the printing of Navajivana daily additional sheets in the Indian Press.

1. Permission is required to print one or more additional sheets in the Indian Press, since the Navajivana Press is unable to cope up with the work at present.

2. The pages printed in the press shall bear the name or the printer and the imprint of the press separately and we shall be responsible jointly and severally as Editor and Printer respectively.

3. As pages will bear the imprint of the press no difficulty arises in fixing the responsibility on any individual, when occasion arises.

4. As already explained in person it is not un-usual for big volumes in parts being printed in different presses to expedite work (such system prevails even in Government presses) I may cite the instance of a newspaper i.e. Rastabhandhu weekly issued from Mangalore, sheets of which are printed both in Madras and Mangalore.

5. You will appreciate the difficulties of the press in emergency cases like failure of current, rush of work, failure of machine etc,. when it is next to impossibility to seek permission. But we do not desire to emphasise this aspect,,as they apply only to emergency cases.

We do not desire to trouble you with a longer letter, We are sure you will grant us the permission, when it is clear that there will be no difficulty in fixing up the responsibility, if and when occasion arises.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter dated 5t
October 1934 requesting that permission ~~to print~~ may be given to Mr. V.S Narayana Rao, Proprietor, Indian Press, to print some additional sheets of Navajivana, ~~in the~~ ~~Indian Press~~, I am directed to state that it is not possible to permit two different individuals to print separate portions of the same paper. Government, however, will have no objection to allow you and Mr. V.S.Narayana Rao to be the joint printers of the entire paper provided both of you declare yourselves as joint Printers ~~jointly for the entire~~ the paper.

Yours faithfully,

for Chief Secretary.
